

A brief biography of Mr. Suleiman Al Rawashdeh, Course Instructor

Mr. Suleiman AlRawashdeh is a Registered Nurse, graduated from Jordan University of Science and Technology Nursing School and completed 12 years of practical experience in Hospitals and Medical Fields.

He was a CCU and ICU Charge Nurse at king Abdullah University Hospital (Jordan) for 6 years and CCU In-Charge Nurse at Al Adan hospital (Kuwait) for another 6 years.

He is currently working as a Clinical Instructor Specialist at Dasman Diabetes Institute and handles daily responsibilities at the Clinical Skills Center. He is an authorized American Heart Association instructor for several AHA courses and teaches AHA and Simulation Courses to medical students and healthcare providers.

In addition to AHA certification, he has certification from various international Institutions and Universities to teach several medically related short courses.